

Extension Try Set In Chittenden Area Pool

Ellenburger Test Well Preparing Storage Tanks

Oil spotlights swung again to the Hamlin area this week with the announcement that in the Chittenden Ranch area, a few miles south-east of Hamlin, rig has been erected for a production extension try, the Eastland Oil Company, et al No. 6 Chittenden, 330 feet from the south and east lines of the northeast quarter of lot 19 Amarada subdivision of league 333 L. Kratz survey. Permit will be for 3,200 feet with rotary.

Drilling of the location is expected to start about the middle of the week following repairs on draw works.

Clearance of storage tanks in preparation for official gauge has been made on Jones County's No. 1 J. Herring, 1,505 feet from the north and 330 from the west line of lot 21 Godwin subdivisions of the DeWitt County School lands league 150 and G. A. Kirkland survey.

Pumping unit has been installed on the well, and initial pumping tests showed about 113 barrels of oil per day, plus about 15 per cent water.

In the Fisher County Round Top field, 10 miles west of Hamlin, official gauge of 155.05 barrels of 40 gravity oil per day with gas-oil ratio of 87.1 has been filed for the El-A. Hall No. 3 J. B. Terrell, 660 feet from the south and west lines of section 80 block 1 H&T.C. survey. Production was through 13-16 choke with 1,050 pounds pressure on casing and 600 on tubing from reef pay at 4,878-4,903 feet. No water was found on the test.

Fisher County Peanut Growers Will Vote Soon

Before Fisher County peanut farmers vote on whether or not there will be marketing quotas and acreage allotments for the next three years they will be notified what their 1948 allotment will be.

This assurance was given this week by Earnest Webb, chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

"This will give each producer a chance to decide whether he receives his fair share of the county allotment before the referendum is held," he said.

By now all peanut producers ought to have received a questionnaire on which they are to give their past acreages and other necessary information.

"It is very important," the chairman said, "that each producer return his questionnaire by October 15, so that the county committee can inform him of his allotment and put his name on the list of eligible voters before the referendum. Any vote may be challenged if the voter's name is not on the eligible list. Anyone who has not received a questionnaire may obtain one by calling by the AAA office in Roby.

If two-thirds of those voting in the referendum favor quotas, farm acreage allotments and quotas will be in effect for the 1948-1949 and 1950 crops.

All peanuts produced in 1948 on farm that is not overplanted will be eligible for a loan or other price support at 80 per cent of parity. On an overplanted farm, only excess peanuts will be eligible for a farm loan or other price support, and at rate of only 54 per cent of parity.

Peanuts marketed in excess of the quota will be subject to a penalty at the rate of 50 per cent of the basic rate in effect.

Telephone Company Eyes Boost in Rates

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company which serves Hamlin, will seek increases in Texas wherever earnings in each of its 248 exchanges justify application to city regulatory bodies. W. L. Prehn, general manager for the state, said this week.

Prehn said the company is studying its earnings in each of the exchanges and plans for requesting increased rates will be determined as results from the studies.

VFW To Furnish Hamlin Memorial Hospital Lobby

VFW Post No. 6014 will furnish the lobby of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, it was announced Wednesday.

Every member is being urged to notify Rip Blackwell of their blood type and also give him their telephone number. This information is being compiled for the local hospital and blood donors may be called on in case of emergencies.

McCaulley Eagles Stomp St. Joseph Academy 35 to 0

McCaulley Eagles, undefeated six-man football team from last year and winner of all games played so far this season, have stretched their streak of wins to 11 by smothering the St. Joseph Academy team from Abilene with a score of 35 to 0. The Eagles have not been scored upon so far this year, having scored 95 points against their opponents.

In the three games already played touchdowns have been made by the following Eagles: Houghton, 6; Lawlis, 3; Gibson, 2; Fought, 1; J. points made as follows by: Hawkins, Lawlis, 1; Hawkins, 1; and extra 6 (three field goals); Fought, 3; Waldrop, 1; and H. Lawlis, 1.

Substitutes have seen plenty of action in all games also. Players and their positions are: Houghton, back, 155 pounds; Gibson, back, 135 pounds; Hawkins, back, 140 pounds; J. Lawlis, back, 135 pounds; Hicks, back, 130 pounds; H. Lawlis, end, 155 pounds; Fought, end, 148 pounds; Lewis, end, 110 pounds; Carlan, end, 135 pounds; Prather, end, 136 pounds; West, end, 175 pounds; Waldrop, center, 142 pounds; Darden, center, 190 pounds and Cox, center, 175 pounds.

Dr. W. B. Glass, Former Missionary To China, Speaks

Dr. W. B. Glass, retired missionary, was guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock a. m. service at the First Baptist Church Sunday. Dr. Glass was a missionary to China for over 40 years, beginning in 1903. Mrs. Glass began her missionary work in 1901. Both were interned in China by the Japanese for two years during World War II.

He is a brother of Mrs. Etta Stephenson of Hamlin and he and Mrs. Glass were week-end guests in the Stephenson home.

Mrs. Glass addressed members of the TEL and Dorcas Sunday School classes Sunday morning. She gave some interesting accounts of her missionary work in China.

Dr. and Mrs. Glass are now at Seminary Hill in Fort Worth and are busy most of the time making talks in churches all over Texas and adjoining states. He has just completed a series of sermons at Hollis, Oklahoma before coming here.

They visited Dr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and other relatives in Abilene Sunday night. Mrs. Stephenson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele, accompanied them to Abilene.

Now in effect, the mail subscription offer of the Abilene Reporter-News for one year, daily and Sunday, is $7.95.

For renewals only, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram offers the daily and Sunday papers for one year at $11.95 and daily without Sunday for $10.60. Orders must be for one full year.

You may get the Wichita Daily Times or the Wichita Falls Record for one year, daily and Sunday, for $8.25. Subscriptions may be new or renewals. Both papers will be sent for $15.

Business Firms Report Many Thefts Recently

A series of petty thefts and one major burglary has been reported in the past several days here to authorities. Western Auto Store manager, Claude Lancaster, revealed that about $500 in cash and checks was taken from his safe in the rear of the building Saturday morning.

On Sunday night someone entered the Ideal Steam Laundry and broke open the penny machine, taking the contents. The intruder emptied about 1,000 straight pins into one of the washers and "messed up" the things in general at the back of the building by opening water faucets and scattering papers. Wade Implement Company and Mauldin Service Station were entered the same night and small articles taken. Pennies were taken at the service station.

A 13-year-old youth has been questioned concerning the thefts and charges are expected to be filed soon. It is believed a group of teen agers is responsible for the small crime wave. A meeting of business men, school authorities and other interested persons was set for Thursday. The problem of juvenile delinquency was to be thoroughly discussed.

Cotton Crop Half Gathered In Community

Better than half of the 1947 cotton crop has been ginned, according to ginners in this and surrounding communities. The rain Monday delayed pulling for two or three days but in most places work was resumed by Wednesday. Cotton grades were lowered a little by the rain but otherwise it was unharmed to the crop.

Farmers Cooperative Gin has ginned 952 bales at noon Wednesday. Producers Gin has ginned 700 bales, making the total of 1,652 for the city gins.

Mienda's Cooperative Gin reported a total of 1,100 bales Wednesday morning. A light shower in that community was received Monday but slowed cotton pulling only for that day.

At McCaulley 267 bales had been ginned with the rain preventing field work from Monday afternoon.

Style Cleaners Moving Downtown

John R. Howell, owner of Style Cleaners, located two blocks west of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, since opening here, will open Monday morning in a new downtown location. Howell announced today. The shop will be located in the north unit of the new Carmichael Building, adjacent to Wade Implement Company.

Howell stated that the plant would be shut down Thursday night in order to move during the week-end. location in order to take in clothing and check out garments already cleaned.

Firm to Higher Prices for Livestock, Grains and Farm Products on Up, Too

Southwest farm markets paid mostly firm to higher prices for livestock, grains and many other products last week, according to a report received by The Herald from the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

Hogs scored gains of mainly 50 cents to $1. San Antonio and Fort Worth established new all time high prices of $28.25 and $29.50 respectively. Week's top at Oklahoma City was $29.75, Wichita $29.60 and Denver $30.50.

Cattle closed the week generally strong to 50 cents higher, although Houston and San Antonio netted losses on steers and yearlings. Houston paid a top of $22 for medium and good caked grass steers. San Antonio bought low to average medium steers at $20. Fort Worth took good fed steers and yearlings at $23 to $27.50. Oklahoma City paid $23 to $29 for good and choice steers, and Wichita gave $20 to $25 for medium light steers and yearlings.

Power set a new all time high of $33 for choice steers, while medium

"Tex" Moore, Local Cowboy Artist, Attends the Chisholm Trail Jubilee

Hamlin Rotary and Lions Furnish Hospital Room

Members of the Hamlin Lions Club voted Tuesday to completely furnish a room in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

The Rotary Club recently voted to furnish a room in the hospital also.

Hamlin Receives 71 Inch Rain Monday Afternoon

Residents of Hamlin finally received that long-awaited rain Monday afternoon with about .71 of an inch of moisture falling intermittently for a few hours. A Herald reporter learned from Bill Rountree at the City Pump Station.

The precipitation was almost localized in the city and surrounding communities southwest and northwest of here. Stamford only received a very light sprinkle, it was reported. In the Plainview community a very light shower was received.

Judging from a survey among the farmers and ranchers it is believed the rain will be very beneficial to the wheat land and will not lower the cotton crop yield. The majority of the cotton crop has already been gathered and that which is still standing does not appear to be harmed or beaten from the stalk. However, the grade is a little lower at most gins in this community.

This was the first rain, other than small showers, since June 18 for Hamlin.

"Tex" Moore, official cowboy artist of Texas, has just returned from Wichita, Kansas, where he attended the Chisholm Trail Jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore made the trip by automobile with Mrs. Moore doing all the driving.

Mr. Moore has ridden the much discussed Chisholm Trail many times, he told a Herald reporter who interviewed him. According to him, the trail was originally named for Jesse Chishum and a New Mexico cattleman by the name of John Chisholm got all the fame for the founding of the famed cattle trail from Texas to the rail centers of Kansas.

The local artist didn't know Chism, but his father did and Tex is sure that the confusion which arose in getting the two names mixed was not intentional by John Chisholm. Tex's father was the first man to drive a herd of cattle from Texas to Abilene, Kansas, which was at that time the western limit of the rail road. Tex drove his first cattle over the Chism trail in 1879 to Dodge City and also made two other trips to that western Kansas cattle and rail hub.

Mr. Moore's past is as colorful as any character in a western magazine. He was a Texas Ranger under Captain Bill McDonald and still carries a 44 slug in his leg to prove it. He also was an Indian scout under the command of General George Crook, serving in the second Geronimo campaign.

He first started his career as a painter when Frederick Remington, old-time cowboy artist, praised his work and urged him to continue it. He also was backed by another cowboy artist, Charles Russell of Montana. He is now the last of the only three cowboy artists in existence. He has had his work displayed all over the country and his paintings can be found all over the world. He conservatively estimates that he has painted at least 3,000 pictures.

Moore is a life member of the Old-Time Texas Cowboy Association and has been honored by the Texas state legislature in naming him the "Official Cowboy Artist of Texas."

Mr. and Mrs. Moore spent the summer in Montana. Tex went to the Jubilee in hopes of finding another old-time cowboy like himself with whom he could recall stories of the old West.

He was crippled many years ago when a government wagon ran over his foot, but that doesn't deter him from his work. He is still very active although in his 80's, and can spin a yarn with the best of them. He still paints and his favorite past-time is a quiet game of solitaire.

Anson Paper Sold To Ed W. Sprowls

Western-Observer, Anson newspaper, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fink to Ed W. Sprowls, who recently disposed of publishing interests at Tulsa and Happy. The Finks bought the paper last December. Sprowls assumed charge on October 1.

Sprowls is a native of Haskell County, getting his first newspaper experience on the Haskell Free-Press

Mighty Mice Give Merkel Tiny Badgers 40-0 Walloping

Hamlin's Mighty Mice gave the Little Merkel Badgers a 40-0 lesson in what Pied Pipers of the future will do to them in a game played here last Thursday night. The locals ran over the little Badgers just like their big brothers had run over the Pipers a few evenings previously on the same field.

This Thursday evening the Mice play host to the Stamford Juniors and on Thursday night of next week, October 16, they play the Anson Juniors.

Followers of the Mighty Mice are expecting them to again be champions of their loop.

Fire Damages Irwin Motor Company Sunday

Fire of undetermined origin practically gutted the repair department of Irwin Motor Company and destroyed two second-hand cars on Sunday night about 11:30 o'clock p. m. When firemen arrived on the scene, the blaze was breaking on through the roof at one point, but the fire fighters quickly brought the fire under control.

Jimmy Irwin, owner-manager of the Kalzer-Frazier Company, stated that the loss was not completely covered with insurance.

Workmen have been busy clearing the debris and the mechanical department will be in operation again in a few days, according to Mr. Irwin. Part of the building will have to be rebuilt.

A new Frazer Manhattan in the show room at the time of the fire escaped damage.

District Meeting American Legion Set for Abilene

Hamlin Legionnaires were informed this week that George S. Berry, Lubbock, Commander of the American Legion, Department of Texas, will be principal speaker at the annual fall convention of the 17th Legion District to be held Saturday and Sunday, October 11-12 at Abilene.

P. C. Stacy, Stephenville, 17th District Commander, will preside and Parramore Legion Post No. 57 at Abilene will be host for the occasion. J. R. Gleaton, Stamford, of Department Vice Commander, is also on the program.

Registration of delegates will begin Saturday morning and continue throughout the day. Main business session of the convention is scheduled Sunday afternoon.

Heading the business agenda of the convention will be the formulation of plans for the 1947-1948 Legion year with special emphasis on membership. Commander Stacy has announced. District committee appointments will also be made at the convention, he said. One of the main issues expected to be debated on the convention floor is that of "Veterans' Housing", he said.

Each of the 30 Legion Posts in the 17th District of which Hamlin is a member, has indicated that it will be prepresented at the convention," Stacy concluded.

A number of officials and members of the Keifer-Patterson Post will attend the convention from Hamlin. A Herald reporter learned early this week.

Herald Reminds Its Advertisers and Other Necessity of Deadline

The Hamlin Herald management again wishes to remind advertisers and news contributors and readers in general that the Wednesday noon deadline is still in effect. As previously explained this step is necessary due to breakdown of a Linotype (typesetting) machine and also due to the shortage of help, both have hampered The Herald greatly. We hope to have the parts here and repairs made soon. Until then, please bear with us!

District Curtain Raiser Tonight at Throckmorton

Spur High School Bulldogs, led by Wright, Allredge, Barclay and company, unleashed a powerful attack at Piper Stadium Friday night, to swat the Pied Pipers 34 to 13. It was the Pipers' third consecutive defeat for the Pipers, but it also marked their first time to score this fall.

A non-conference scrap, the game was featured by the running and power gains of the Bulldogs, who had previously defeated a fairly weak Haskell team and had tied the Post team.

Early in the game the Bulldogs struck and kept the game going their way from then on. Wright skirted left end and raced 42 yards for the first pay dirt in the opening minutes. Wilson took a pass from Simpson in the second quarter that was good for 72 yards and a touchdown. Minutes later Allredge hit the left side and ripped off 62 yards that put him across the double stripe.

Long runs were also made by Barclay and Wright in the third and fourth quarters for the final Bulldog tally. Wright made good on four out of six tries for extra points.

First score for Hamlin came in the first quarter following a fumble by Wright on the two-yard line. Jack Owens recovered and then scored from there. Final score for the Pipers came in the last stanza as the climax of an 80-yard drive downfield against Spurs reserves.

The Bulldogs suffered a blow in the third quarter when their left end, Bass, broke his arm while making a tackle.

Meet Greyhounds Tonight Friday night marks the entrance of the Pied Pipers into conference play as they journey to Throckmorton to tangle with the fast-stepping Greyhounds. The Greyhounds nosed out Munday's Mooguls 26-24 in a hotly contested fray last Friday night.

Results of other area games were: Stamford 45, Albany 13. Snyder 7, Post 6. Roscoe 21, Winters 6. Woodson 13, Aspermont 7. Anson 46, Haskell 0. Rochester 47, Hobbs 13. Rotan 25, Roby 0. Merkel 47, Lorraine 12.

Meats Remain On Menu Here Tuesday Noon

From available information, meat remained on the luncheon menus of all Hamlin major cafes and coffee shops Tuesday, the day requested by President Truman to be observed as "meatless." Majority of the operators plan to carry meat dishes on their menus and let their customers decide if they want to carry out the president's suggestion, a survey made by a Herald reporter revealed.

In most eating places, emphasis will be placed on the vegetable dishes on Tuesdays, thereby encouraging them to refrain from eating meat.

Meat was served the Lions Club and although the subject was widely discussed among the members most of the members at meat. And it was hinted that all regular meat eaters had their usual amount.

One operator stated that not a single customer refused meat that day and expressed doubt that they would ever comply with the request. Several remarked that if the government would reduce our income taxes, they would be willing to cooperate on such a matter.

"Let your conscience be your guide," seems to be the motto here, as in larger towns.

So, the matter stands in Hamlin.

Social Security Man Sets Stamford Date

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

by Jeanette Bryant

"Children should be seen and not hurt" is a very fitting motto displayed in the Mineral Wells school zone. Think it over.

***

"In the footprints on the sands of time some people leave only the marks of a heel." Better watch our steps. Stop and look backward occasionally to make sure we're not making such a mistake.

***

Just must tell about our visit to the State Fair. It's a great show and they certainly planned a full day of fine entertainment for the press with a barbecue at noon in the Chuck Wagon and the well-known Chuck Wagon Gang from Odessa serving the delicious food. In the afternoon the newspaper men and their wives were guests at the premier showing of "Annie Get Your Gun" and the "White Horse Revue." The SMU-Missouri football game in the evening climaxed the day's activities.

It was difficult to decide which

mother and child combination was the most popular at the Fair, Mary Martin and her six-year old daughter, Heller, in their excellent character roles in "Annie Get Your Gun" or Elsie, the nationally known cow, and her two-week-old calf. The comparison sounds ridiculous but believe it or not the lines standing to get a gander at the bovine and her son was half a mile long (almost anyway).

Of course, Elsie isn't just an ordinary cow therefore her son is unique too. Their elaborately furnished boudoir is not the usual type home for a cow and calf. But on the other hand, Mary and Heller are not just ordinary actresses, they and aughter would rank first after are wonderful. Guess the mother seriously considering the matter.

Who said the world isn't getting better? We're convinced it truly is showing signs of improving. First time we ever sat through an entire football game in the Cotton Bowl and didn't see a liquor bottle being drained or even a person who looked a little on the intoxicated side. Could be the cost of living has increased so greatly that people simply cannot afford the stuff and a ticket to the football game too.

Or might be because we were sitting among mostly newspaper personnel and of course, they refrain from such disgusting practice. (??) Never heard a curse word either. How encouraging for those who thought the world was going "to the dogs."

***

Mary Martin really plays the part of Annie Oakley superbly in the musical, "Annie Get Your Gun." The costumes are the most gorgeous and colorful ones that you can imagine. Irving Berlin's songs, written especially for this show, are very good. The only criticism we have to offer is that the profanity could have been eliminated and Texas would have enjoyed the show much more fully. The majority of people appreciate a good show void of vulgarity or profanity. Or so we believe. We might be wrong.

***

Betty Brown Lee, who was judged the best baton twirler in America last year and now a star in the Ice Cycles, gave a beautiful performance "tween" hills at the football game. We overheard some Missouri fans suggesting that they place her behind the Missouri goal post and nothing could stop those Tigers.

CAMPUS FORMAL

Yards and yards of cotton net are used by designer Mary Muffet to create this very formal dance frock for big evenings on the campus. In pastels and white, the strapless bodice is garlanded in rosebuds and snugged for figure flattery.

Sounded reasonable, at least after you got a good look at her.

Boyce House had the privilege of eating lunch at our table. You know we columnists have so much in common. In fact all those members of the fourth estate and radio people, guests at the barbecue, had very much in common after eating those large onions. For the remainder of the day, you didn't ask if they were newspaper personnel, you just took a deep breath for identification.

Our little friend is still fighting for life. While with him we learned that Mr. and Mrs. Stirr Inzer have been there at the hospital with their little son and both had made friends, among the children and their parents. Many inquired about the Inzers and complimented on being such a fine couple who are interested in all people and especially those who are ill, or the parents who are so concerned about their precious children. Many lasting friendships are developed around hospitals.

Agent Advises Not to Trim Mums Too Close

All Hamlin and Jones County homemakers should leave chrysanthemum buds alone if the plants are the new hardy garden varieties, states Miss Loretta Allen, county home demonstration agent.

The beauty of the new varieties lies in the profusion of blossoms rather than in the size of each individual flower, the Jones County home demonstration agent says.

Custom of trimming back the tops of chrysanthemums to produce sturdy, low-growing plants should be stopped at least 10 or 12 weeks before flowers are expected—although the time varies with the variety.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Time Lapse In Delivery of Remains Of War II Dead

Hamlin and Jones County people were informed this week by Colonel C. C. Strawn, commanding officer of the Fort Worth Quartermaster Depot, that there will be an operational time lapse between arrival of the deceased military personnel at ports of New York and San Francisco and the final delivery of remains to their next-of-kins.

This lapse of time may be as great as three weeks, depending upon distance of residence of next-of-kin from port at which remains arrive and the number of rail transfer points and rail connections to be made between port, distribution center and final destination.

Colonel Strawn stressed to Herald readers that next-of-kin will receive positive information from distribution points nearest residence of next-of-kin as soon as date of arrival at home is known.

Foreign Threats To Cotton Seen With Synthetics

Foreign efficiency and production pose a great threat right now to the American cotton industry, E. D. White, assistant to the secretary of agriculture, informs the Jones County Farm Bureau and bureau members.

White declares that despite today's favorable position of the U. S. cotton industry, "there still exists a destructive threat to cotton."

"Ceaselessly, day by day," White says, "this competition is enmeshing away at the very foundation on which cotton rests. Rising efficiency and increased production of foreign cotton, and of domestic and foreign synthetic fibers" are the greatest threat.

"The once vast stocks of cotton held by the Commodity Credit Corporation have disappeared, primarily because of the post-war development of export markets," White continues. "Holding of these foreign markets in the face of destructive competition presents a real challenge to every farm bureau and to the ingenuity of America."

The official points out that the Department of Agriculture "recognizes that increased industrialization of the South would greatly decrease the possibility of a substantial social problem arising from the complete mechanization of cotton."

White urges that any unskilled laborers in Jones or other counties displaced in mechanization of cotton be retained and relocated in other segments of southern agriculture.

Noted Lecturer Slated to Speak At H-SU Monday

Hamlin area and Jones County people are informed this week of Howard Pierce Davis, world-renowned lecturer and specialist of international affairs, will be presented in a one hour lecture in the Hardin-Simmons Behrens chapel on Monday evening, October 13 at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

Davis is the editor of the World Observer and has spent at least three months of each of the last nine years in Europe. There he studied the many and complex problems and moves for power, interviewing the men who guide the course of this troubled world.

The presentation of Davis is the first of four artist courses scheduled to be presented in the chapel during the coming school year. On February 12 the Barter Theatre play is to be presented. Alec Templeton, noted blind pianist, is to give a concert February 19, and on May 11, the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra will be heard. Other artist courses are to be scheduled at a later date.

Good Interest Shown In Cotton Maid Quest

Autumn, with its happy reminder of falling leaves and golden sunsets, swept across Jones County Monday. Although the weather man would not get "out on a limb" Tuesday he holds promise—now that Autumn is here—of cooler nights and greatly moderated days in the weeks ahead.

Farmers over the county are hopeful, open, sunny weather of September will continue so early cotton can be harvested and ginned before fall rains start.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

Did you ever hear of "dropping the pigeon?" Back in Memphis, Tennessee, when I was a young reporter, "dropping the pigeon" was frequently reported to the police. How the name was derived I don't know but it was swindle in which the sharpshooters and the victims were negroes. The scheme worked in this way.

A cotton picker, with his season's earnings, alighted from a train and as he entered the railroad station, a well-dressed negro perceived from the new arrival's clothes and his gawking at the sights that he was a greenhorn so he stepped forward and said, "Jedge Brown, when did you get to the city?" and then he said, "Ah begs yoah pardon, suh but you looks so much lak mah friend, Jedge Brown de distinguished law-yah from Grenada dat ah mistook you."

Of course, the rustic was flattered at having been mistaken for so distinguished a personage and then his new friend said, "Ah'm goin' to walk up town, ef you would care to accompany me, ah'd be glad to point out de sights." An invitation which was accepted.

They had walked only a block or two when the city man stooped quickly and picked up a billfold, then jerked his companion into a doorway, saying, "Let's git in heah befo' somebody ses what we found." In the billfold was a $50 bill. "Huh, no name er address; we can't return it, so it's ouahs," said the finder. "You has brung me luck so we will split it." But he didn't have the change. The visitor however produced $25, so his friend pocketed this and handed him the $50 bill. A few minutes later the finder of the billfold shook hands with him cordially and told him goodbye. When the country negro made a purchase, he learned that the bill was counterfeit. The billfold had of course been dropped by a confederate of the smooth talker.

During the trial for theft, the defendants suddenly changed his plea to guilty. The jury came back in a little while with a verdict of "Not guilty." The judge said, "But the defendant confessed." "Pshaw, jedge," replied the foreman, "we all know Bill and we know what a big liar he is."

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

By GEORGE DARDEN

There's a lot of wheeling and dealing going on in and around the old home town with reference to the buying and selling of real estate. E. C. Waldrop has sold a farm to J. I. Parker adjoining the town site on the north and George Darden has purchased an 80-acre farm from Anderson-Clayton Cotton Company adjoining the town site on the southwest. And a lot of other deals in the making. The old home town has unfolded the sidewalks and once again progress is on the march.

Besides ginning and gathering of cotton, the world series has caused quite a bit of excitement and too the McCaulley High football team defeated St. Joseph Academy of Abilene by a score of 32 to 0 last Friday. Thus far the local hasn't been scored on and we gotta' notion that we got another district championship team and if you think of this as otherwise there is a lot of boys who will "ante up."

Still need boll pullers in these parts, cotton is good, for instance C. M. Woods gathered 10 bales off of 16 acres the first going over and with no rain.

Meandering around in Hamlin last Saturday night and from the looks of things the suburbs of McCaulley was a busy place.

"Senator Pappy" has been barnstorming over West Texas the past week and from his reports the country is still going to the dogs. We thought surely Pappy would clean up the country by this time.

Visited our mom and pop at Girard, Kent County last Sunday and the fields are white with cotton up there.

The big boys over in Russia are still doing a lot of big talk. Maybe they are bluffing but we better be prepared just in case.

Several Fisher County 4-H Club boys are in Dallas this week for the Texas Fair with their show calves.

Its doggone little local news we know this week, in fact haven't had time to get off the gin lot but so long as business is good it doesn't make much difference about aching bones.

Going to sell our five room house in McCaulley up the first of January and won't hold you up on the price. Reason for selling going to try our hand at farming.

The McCaulley School Board still want to purchase 2,000 feet of two-inch pipe. Sho' do need to complete the water system at the new school building.

In three weeks the cotton farmer will be ready for a rain, maybe so the wheat farmer wants one now.

It looks as if Harley Sadler may throw his hat in the ring for Governor of Texas. Harley would be a hard man to beat. He has plenty of friends.

Folks have begun to wonder about Fisher County politics, pretty soon its going to get "hot" in more ways than one.

If you know any local gossip that should be in this column all you gotta' do is see the scribe or mail it in. See you next week.

County Schools Need Health Plan Says State Man

Every school in Jones County should have a definite school health program. Situations such as, the kind of drinking water, arrangements for the school lunch, the lighting, seating, ventilation and cleanliness of the school room and the personal practices of the teachers and children are the basis of the school health program, said Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer in a special release to The Herald this week.

Every school has tremendous opportunities to promote the health of its pupils and of its community. From early childhood to early manhood and womanhood, most children are enrolled in schools and are under the supervision of school staffs for a substantial part of the day of the year. The conditions under which they live in school, the help which they are given in solving their health problems, the ideals of individual and community health which they are taught and the information and understanding that they acquire of themselves are factors which operate to develop attitudes and behavior conducive to health, happy and successful living.

Schools alone, however, cannot enable children to attain all the desirable goals of individual and community health. Considering the magnitude and multitude of the diverse and continuing efforts that must be made to satisfy the health needs of children, it is fortunate that many people and groups, in addition to schools, are greatly interested in promoting health. Parents have a prime responsibility.

Physicians, dentists, nurses health officers, social and welfare workers and their official organizations, such as medical, dental and nursing societies, health departments and voluntary health agencies are all rightly concerned with health activities in their communities.

Admiration Coffee Opens Unusual Contest for Public

An unusual contest is brought to the attention of The Herald's readers by Admiration Coffee in their $5,000 dollar "My Favorite Grocer" contest.

In this contest not only does the grand prize winner receive $1,000 in cash, but the grocery store named in the winning entry receives $500 in cash. Winners are judged on the best statements of 50 words or less completing the sentence—"My Favorite Grocer is (name of favorite grocery store) because" . . . telling why this grocery store is the favorite of the contestant.

It was pointed out by contest officials that since this is strictly a regional contest—this is, confined to the Southwest—and not offered nationally—contestants have eight times better chances of winning in it than any contest offered throughout the United States.

In addition to the grand cash prize of $1,000 for the contestant, the second and third grand prizes are a Philco Refrigerator and a Crosley Radio-Phonograph Combination, respectively. Before the judging of the grand prize winners, there are six weekly contests with the winners receiving the items named above, plus Westinghouse Electric Roasters, Dormeyer Electric Mixers, Manning-Bowman Electric Percolators, Dominion Electric Toasters and dozens of others.

Not only do these prizes go to the winning contestants, but the "favorite" grocers named in the winning contestants' entries also receives valuable prizes.

The contest started September 29. Weekly contest winners will be selected from entries received before midnight Saturday at the end of each week for the following six weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Burkett has gone to Orange for a visit with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burkett.

Mrs. Timmie Ellis of Abilene spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rountree.

Admiration's $5,000 "MY FAVORITE GROCER" CONTEST

"My Grocer has always been so helpful in seeing that I get the best of everything"

A STATEMENT LIKE THIS MAY WIN YOU $1,000

or one of many other valuable prizes

Now is the time to send in your entry for this grand new contest! You may win one of the valuable weekly prizes and still be eligible for any of the Grand Prizes! Remember, if your entry is judged best you win $1,000, and the grocer you name as your favorite also wins $500. Every winning contestant will win a special prize for the grocer he or she names as "My Favorite Grocer." Among the wonderful weekly prizes are Philco refrigerators, Westinghouse Electric roasters and irons, Dormeyer electric mixers, Manning-Bowman electric percolators, Dominion electric toasters—and many other prizes!

FOLLOW THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. Simply complete this statement in fifty words or less: "My favorite grocery store's name is my favorite grocer because . . ."
2. Write on one side of paper (or get an entry blank from your grocer) and mail to Admiration Contest, Box 285, Houston, Texas. Be sure to include your name and address and name and address of your grocer.
3. You may send as many entries as you wish but each entry must be accompanied by one of these: The Mummy picture (or label) from an Admiration Coffee package or jar—or the strip that unwinds from an Admiration vacuum can.
4. Anyone is eligible to enter except employees of the Duncan Coffee Company, their advertising agency and their families.
5. All entries become the property of the Duncan Coffee Company—none can be returned—and the decision of the judges will be final.
6. The contest begins September 29th and ends midnight, November 16th. Weekly contest winners will be selected from entries received before midnight Saturday of each week. All entries postmarked later than midnight, November 16, will not be considered.
7. All winners will be notified. A list of the winners will be sent to all contestants requesting one and sending a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Your "Favorite Grocer" features C. Tested ADMIRATION Coffee—that delicious blend with the abundant flavor, aroma and richness. Get your favorite grind—Dripkut, Perk-Kut or Glass-drip

Steadily Declining Prices for Cotton Recorded as Crop Harvest Climaxes

Jones County cotton producers concerned over the report that prices in spot markets declined steadily and lost about three-tenths of a cent a pound during the last week, according to the Department of Agriculture in a release to the Herald. Spot markets were active. Mill buying increased. Demand continued strong for most weight textiles with prices firm. Domestic mill consumption during August was 711,000 bales, up to mid-September were 1,100 bales. Those ginnings were probably higher in grade but the staple length was shorter than the same date last year.

Stocks of cotton in mills and in public storage are at very low levels. Picking and ginning made good progress in most areas. Labor for picking is reported to be scarce in many sections.

Prices for middling fifteen-sixteenths in the 10 spot markets average 31.00 cents per pound on Thursday, September 25, as compared with 31.89 cents a week earlier and 37.57 a year ago. Prices declined steadily during most of the week. The basis or spread between December futures and spot prices narrowed and was about "even" at the end of the week as compared with 15 points a week ago. Future prices tended to weaken under hedge pressure.

Reported sales in the ten spot markets totaled 226,000 bales for the week as compared with 198,400 last week and 172,500 a year ago. Some cotton is being withheld from the market by farmers. Mill buying increased a little principally for prompt delivery with the demand mostly for the medium to higher grades and staple lengths fifteen-sixteenths inch through one and onesixteenth inch. Merchants and mills are not stocking cotton to any extent. Reports indicate that the first shipment consisting of 15,000 bales of cotton exported to Germany under the plan for exports through regular trade channels has left this country and another 10,000 bales is expected to be shipped by the end of September.

Domestic mill consumption totaled 710,600 during August, according to the Bureau of the Census. This compares with 677,500 during July this year and with 855,500 during August last year. The average daily rate of consumption during August was 33,800 bales. This is the smallest daily rate for any August since 1940 with the exception of August 1945. The daily rate for August 1947 was about 10 percent higher than for July but 13 percent smaller than for August last year. The 10-year (1937-46) average increase in daily consumption in August over July was three per cent.

Stocks of cotton in mills at the end of August were reported at 1,154,300 bales. This is the smallest quantity in mills as of the end of August since 1940. At the August rate of consumption mill stocks were equal to only about one and one-half months supply. This short supply is probably reflected by trade reports of premiums being offered for prompt delivery. Stocks in public storage at the end of August were also at very low levels. According to the Bureau of Census these stocks totaled only 833,109

Ginning through September 15 this year totaled 1,552,900 bales as compared with 1,255,300 to the same date last year. Ginnings this year to mid-September were a little over 13 percent of the indicated production with about 15 percent to the same date last year. Cotton ginned through September 15 this year was substantially higher in grade but somewhat shorter in average staple length than last year. The grade index of ginnings this year was 100.1 (Middling White-100) as compared with 98.9 last year. The number of bales of strict middling and higher ginned through mid-September this year is considerably larger than total ginnings of those grades from last year's small crops.

Rheumatic Heart Disease Takes Toll Among Children

Jones County parents are advised by State Health Officer Dr. George W. Cox that rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged 10 to 14, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its epidemiology is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough has yet been developed for its prevention or control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals, and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented.

Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or over-crowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

Dr. Cox points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain usually is felt in one of these centers and spreads to the others. Oftentimes a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily to develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

Combination Dishes Stretch Food Energy

Combination main dishes for Hamlin and Jones County homes offer a two-way economy, especially important for low cost meals when food costs are up, reports Miss Loretta Allen, county home demonstration agent.

Such combinations as macaroni and cheese, spaghetti and meat sauce, rice and meat stew, or creamed eggs on toast are familiar examples.

The economy in such dishes is that the inexpensive cereal foods "stretch" the meat, cheese or eggs and make them go farther in serving the family. Miss Allen points out that the more important economy, however, is the other way around—the meat, eggs, milk or cheese stretch or build up the nutritive value of cereal foods.

The protein in grains or cereals is not complete. To be fully useful for growth and body repair grain protein can be reinforced with animal protein.

If cereal foods such as bread, flour and rice are to be used to the best advantage in the diet, thrifty Jones County housewives will combine them with at least a little milk, cheese, meat or egg. In the union there is added strength and added flavor.

Dried skim milk at current prices is the cheapest food and one of the best for building up cereal protein.

Mrs. W. H. Gilbert is visiting in Dallas this week-end where she will meet Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Holder of Westfield, New Jersey. Mrs. Holder was the former Edwina Gilbert. They will return to Hamlin with her mother on Saturday to spend their vacation. They were due to arrive in Dallas by plane on Friday.

MEN NOT WORRIED MUCH BY STYLE CHANGES IN FASHION

While women's skirts go up and down like an elevator, you may be glad to know, daddy, that the present drape trend in men's wear in Jones County will stick for a while. No need to make over or replace your wardrobe on that account.

Local merchants find the men of Hamlin and the county pretty well secure.

For instance, in a preview of what will be chic for spring, the low roll one-button double-breasted suit will be just ducky for Jones and Fisher Counties. This is a typical drape shape item.

But as for bi-swing sport coats and bi-swing back suits—nuts! No merchant in this sector figures many men will tug out in the sports numbers next spring. No local merchant expects a rush for bi-swing suits.

A gabardine top coat, for example, will help bill you as a well dressed man next spring. There is very little enthusiasm over covert top coats.

Now about suit materials. A majority of the style conscious vendors think you will be pleased with cheviots and shetlands, in herring-bone patterns.

Jones County's 7,984 men folks, as many have already ascertained, find there still isn't enough suits, shirts, underwear and shoes to satisfy everybody. But there will be plenty of overcoats available in the local stores—even if you can't get all the things to go under them.

Local merchants aren't quite sure, either, whether you will buy a new spring suit outfit after looking at the price tags. Right here is where the male will need a nice little pep "huddle" in the form of the good sales talk.

Millennium Finally Came.

It happened during the rush for gasoline ration coupons and the scene was an American high school. The white-haired teacher at the table looked up and grinned at the man standing before her, application in hand.

"Well," she said, "after all these years, I'm finally able to give you an 'A'!"

Feed County Soil For Fatter Crops, Agent Is Urging

"Feed the land and fatten the crops."

That's the slogan which H. C. Stanley Jr., county agent, would like to see in operation on every farm in Jones County.

Stanley brings the slogan to attention now because it's time to "feed the land" with winter legumes, which help furnish soil fertility that fattens the crops.

Winter legumes can be planted, says Stanley, as soon as there is enough moisture in the soil to work it properly.

Legume seed that has been inoculated has produced the best crop of green manure. Stanley says that proper seed inoculation is a necessary phase of legume growing, if the producer wants to get the most benefit from his winter cover crop. Fertilization is just as necessary, says the county agent, in areas where soils and rainfall will make good use of the fertilizer.

On the better types of Jones County soils Stanley recommends 200 to 400 pounds of 20 per cent super-phosphate per acre, or its equivalent, while on light, sandy soils and old fields, it will take 300 to 400 pounds of 0-14-7 commercial fertilizer per acre to get the job done.

Stanley labels winter legume growing one of the biggest steps in the current 7-Step Cotton Program which thousands of Texas farmers are carrying on in the state. The 7-Step Program, a balanced cotton farming plan, includes "soil improvement," and inoculated, fertilized legumes, turned under preceding cash crops, is a money-making soil improvement step.

The agent is urging Jones County farmers to obtain their legume seed, fertilizer and inoculant and be ready for legume planting when soil moisture permits.

FALL FASHIONS of 1947 have a look of roundness as shown in the above suit. Jones County women note collars, hiplines and pockets are rounded in new fall offerings, which are on display at local stores.

County Agent Asks Farmers to Clean Up Rubbish on Premises

County Agent H. C. Stanley Jr. warned Jones County farmers to dispose of rubbish accumulations promptly. "Otherwise," the agent said, "the waste material may dry out and become ideal tinder for a discarded match or stray spark."

Many farmers, burdened with farm chores, are apt to let piles of rubbish, leaves and grass lie around for weeks, the county agent stated. "Disposal of this waste should come under the heading of farm 'house-cleaning'. Not only are the piles a definite fire hazard, but they are unsightly and often breed disease."

Piles of moist manure and other rubbish have been known to ignite by spontaneous combustion, he pointed out. "Very often farmers 'touch off' the piles by uncovering the damp underlayers. On being exposed to the air, the piles catch on fire."

"Because of the fire hazard that is always present around such piles, farmers should keep approved fire extinguishers handy," Fowler added. "Extinguishers are also a must in the kitchen and barns for once a fire gets out of hand a farmer's life work can be wiped out in a few minutes."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells and daughter, Kathryn Jean, of Lordsburg, New Mexico left Tuesday after spending 10 days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wells.

Mrs. B. W. Neidecken was in Wichita Falls Saturday and her son, Ben Neidecken and Callens George accompanied her back to Hamlin to spend the week-end. They are both in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele were in Abilene Monday and Tuesday. He went for a medical checkup. Mrs. Etta Stephenson spent Monday in Abilene shopping and visiting her son, Dr and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson.

Mrs. Starr Inzer and little son, Jimmy, have returned from DeLeon, where they spent a few days with her family. Jimmy underwent medical treatments at Baylor and Bradford hospitals in Dallas last week.

Mrs. J. I. Steed is in Dallas for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Ethelan Wellbaum and Mrs. Clonell Johnson, and brother, Elbert Harris.

Slight Price Drop For Commodities Shown by Survey

For the second consecutive week, the Associated Press weighed wholesale price index of 35 commodities dropped, declining to 190.13 Friday, compared with 192.1 the week before and 144.05 a year ago, in a report to The Herald. The average 1926 price equals 100.

It was the largest weekly drop since May.

The grains and cotton component took the biggest tumble, hitting 220.7 against 228.41 the week before. The food component was next, standing at 159.21, down from 161.04 a week ago.

Other components losing ground were industrial and livestock. The non-ferrous metal component was unchanged.

GOSSARD

Sole gainer of the week was the textile component, advancing to the year's high of 223.89, compared with 222.07 a week ago and 149.86 a year ago.

Individual commodities declining were corn, wheat, oats, cotton, eggs, coffee, butter, hogs, lambs and linseed oil.

Gaining were rubber, turpentine, cocoa, flour, lard, cattle, rye, wool and cotton cloth.

Better Stakes Elsewhere.

Kind Friend—"I'll give you a penny for a kiss, Betty."

Little Sis—"No, thank you! I can earn more takin' cod liver oil."

Expecting Too Much of Her.

"Why are you so blue this morning?" the lady asked her cleaning woman.

"Oh, I've got me troubles, mum," she replied, and began telling about her afflictions.

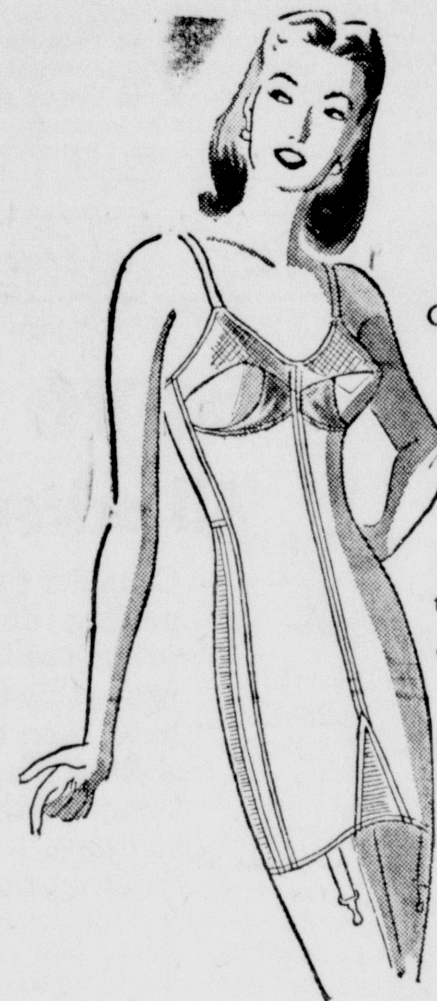

"Well, cheer up," said the lady. "There's no use worrying."

"How can you say that, mum?" asked the cleaning woman. "It looks to me that when the Lord sends me tribulations, He expects me to tribulate."

TRUE STORIES of WEST TEXAS

(By N. H. Kincaid, 2618 History St., Abilene, Texas—Copyrighted)

THE BONE CROP OF THE EARLY 80's

Ben Middleton chuckled as he pocketed the $3 dollars for his load of bones. He had dumped them at the large stockpile on North First an djust east of Pine Street in Abilene, but paused to watch the loading of another freight car before joining his friends. They were his neighbors, all living in the Guion community and these two had each when they told him of the $1.50 re-brought in a load of wood.

"Well boys," Middleton drawled as he walked for their wood. "This is one time that hard work didn't pay off. Here you sweat for hours chopping and loading your wood, while all I do is pick up a pile of nice smooth bones. And then my fare brings twice as much as yours. I'll stick to bones—as long as they last."

This harvesting of the "bone crop" flourished throughout West Texas in those early 80's and many a newcomer owed them to his very livelihood. Several years were required before a farmer could make a crop. Not only must a virgin "hardpan" be broken but all manner of insects and ground pests must also be combated, for the country was prevalent with wild life. And since the West was undeveloped, even largely uninhabited, there were no established trades nor industries in which those covered wagon settlers could work.

Thus these bones, the residue of the great buffalo kill of the 70's, came in quite handy. Sold to eastern manufacturers, they were used in the making of fertilizer and of a bleaching material needed in the refining of sugar.

"It was a most picturesque spectacle," says W. A. McCormick, another early Taylor Countian, in describing those weird stockpiles. "Long queues of wagons poured to the concentration grounds and the piles of bleached, brittle bones reached as high as the houses." And the same scene was being enacted all the way through West Texas.

The bones sold by their weight. They first brought $8 a ton delivered at the pile, but as they became scarce the price soon rose to $21 and $22 a ton.

An interesting incident is told in this connection. "Old Man" Bryant, a former buffalo hunter who lived in Kent County at the mouth of Dry Duck Creek, hauled his gathered buffalo bones into Colorado City. He always spent the night enroute on Lone Wolf Creek. Here he would back his loaded wagon into the rocky bottomed creek night. His load is said to have always brought a fourth again as much as that of his neighbors.

"This bone crop continued large for sometime," said C. E. Gilbert, founder of the Abilene Reporter. "In July, 1881, there were 33 cars of 495 tons shipped out of Abilene; in August there were 37 cars of 555 tons, and in September, 39 cars of 585 tons. In fact," he concluded, "it was so large that it was predicted that when the bones were all gone, trade would be non-existent, until Wednesday morning."

News Briefs From—Fisher County

Fisher County farmers will soon be notified of their 1948 peanut allotment before voting on marketing quotas, the county ACA chairman, Ernest Webb, has announced. Mrs. J. T. Stephenson is new president of the Rotan Home Demonstration Club. Plans are set for the Fisher County Fair to be held at Roby on October 30 through November 1. Open house and dedication service for the new Roby Methodist parsonage will be held Sunday, October 12. A strong flow of water in five feet of strata was hit in the Roby water test at 225 feet. Drilling deeper the stream was stopped at 257 feet and water came nearly to the top of the hole. Water was slightly "gyppy" and the drillers are going deeper.

News Briefs From—Stonewall County

Playing under the lights for the first time in Aspermont the Aspermont Hornets were defeated by the Woodson team Friday night, 13-7. George L. Hanke is new commander of the American Legion Post in Aspermont. Other officers are: Charles Abernathy, vice commander; Lytle H. McEwen, adjutant; L. A. Foster, finance officer; Rev. S. D. Smith, chaplain; Jack Sanford, sergeant-at-arms; Carlton Lambert, historian. Four applications for assistance were discussed and approved at the last meeting of the King-Stonewall conservation district. Cotton picking is the big business

'God and Others First' Is Nazarene Pastor's Subject Sunday

Rev. J. T. Crawford, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will preach on the subject "God and Others First" at the 11:00 o'clock a. m. hour Sunday morning.

Odean Murphee and Mrs. M. S. Johnson will direct the junior choir, which will be in charge of the opening exercises for the Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock a. m.

Young People and juniors will meet at 6:45 o'clock p. m. in the evening. Rev. Crawford will have for his topic, "The Plague of the Soul" for the exangelistic hour beginning at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Several representatives from the local Church of the Nazarene will attend the annual district assembly in Cisco Monday through Thursday of next week.

General superintendent, H. V. Miller, will preside at this meeting.

Those planning to attend from the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene are: Rev. and Mrs. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walsh, Mrs. J. T. ### 108 Persons Attend P-TA Meet Thursday

Hamlin Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association met for its first regular scheduled meeting on Thursday, October 2.

Eighth grade rooms gave a very good program under the direction of their teachers, Joe King and G. T. Black.

Business of the association included reports from committees work during the summer, distribution of year books by the program chairman, Mrs. Eddie Jay, and a discussion of the summer work.

J. C. Scott, minister of the Church of Christ, was the speaker for this occasion. He brought a discussion on the subject, "Bettering Human Relations." In this discussion Mr. Scott brought out the ideal of bettering our relations in the international, national, state and local levels. He stated that we as parents and teachers may be a big factor in teaching our children to think in terms of equality of all in a democracy. We can teach both by precept and example. The teacher who has a "pet" is despised of the other students and the parent who makes her child dislike all other children has ruined a child and has brought forth fruit that sometimes leads to un-Americanism. Our cooperation and help for our children through our schools can be a big factor in continuing a sound Democracy.

Next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association is November.

Pleasant Grove Hosts to County Baptists Tuesday

Baptists from Jones County Association will meet with Pleasant Grove Church next Tuesday, October 14 for the regular workers conference. Recently three rural churches, Friendship, Oak Grove and Mount Pleasant, granted letters to all their members, donated all their property to the church-to-be, the Pleasant Grove Church, and adjourned sine die. In this manner the new church was formed. It is located five miles south of Anson on the Abilene highway.

Johnnie Agnew will be in charge of the song services at the conference, which begins at 10:00 o'clock a. m. Rev. Wayland Boyd will speak on "A Good Steward of Jesus Christ," followed by "God's Plan for Financing His Kingdom" by Rev. L. F. Moreland.

"What It Costs Not to Tithe" will be Rev. Miles B. Hays subject at 11:20 o'clock a. m., just preceding the noon lunch.

Several local representatives plan to attend this meeting.

H-SU Cowboys Opens Border Race Saturday

Hamlin football fans and H-SU, Abilene exes, were informed this week that an undefeated Arizona University football team will invade Abilene Saturday night to play the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys as the two teams square off the opening of the Border Conference championship race. Arizona smothered Montana 40 to 7 last Saturday while 24 hours earlier the Cowboys were stubbing their toes in San Jose, California, 12-19.

Defeated by San Jose State Friday night the contest brought to an end the longest undefeated streak of any college team in the Southwest—a total of 22 games. Coach Warren B. Woodson has indicated the Cowboys will be put through stiff workouts all this week in preparation for the first conference game of the season.

Probable starters for the Cowboys include Jack Ellison of Hamlin, left guard and Al Johnson, formerly of Hamlin and now of Dublin, at the quarterback position.

Extension Try Set In Chittenden Area Pool

Ellenburger Test Well Preparing Storage Tanks

Oil spotlights swung again to the Hamlin area this week with the announcement that in the Chittenden Ranch area, a few miles south-east of Hamlin, rig has been erected for a production extension try, the Eastland Oil Company, et al No. 6 Chittenden, 330 feet from the south and east lines of the northeast quarter of lot 19 Amarada subdivision of lease 333 L. Kratz survey. Permit will be for 3,200 feet with rotary.

Drilling of the location is expected to start about the middle of the week following repairs on draw works.

Clearance of storage tanks in preparation for official gauge has been made on Jones County's No. 1 J. Herring, 1,505 feet from the north and 330 from the west line of lot 21 Godwin subdivisions of the DeWitt County School lands league 150 and G. A. Kirkland survey.

Pumping unit has been installed on the well, and initial pumping tests showed about 113 barrels of oil per day, plus about 15 per cent water.

In the Fisher County Round Top field, 10 miles west of Hamlin, official gauge of 155.05 barrels of 40 gravity oil per day with gas-oil ratio of 879:1 has been filed for the E. A. Hall No. 3 J. B. Terrell, 660 feet from the south and west lines of section 80 block 1 H&TC survey. Production was through 13-16 choke with 1,050 pounds pressure on casing and 600 on tubing from reef pay at 4,878-4,903 feet. No water was found on the test.

Fisher County Peanut Growers Will Vote Soon

Before Fisher County peanut farmers vote on whether or not there will be marketing quotas and acreage allotments for the next three years they will be notified what their 948 allotment will be.

This assurance was given this week by Earnest Webb, chairman of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

"This will give each producer a chance to decide whether he receives his fair share of the county allotment before the referendum is held," he said.

By now all peanut producers ought to have received a questionnaire on which they are to give their past acreages and other necessary information.

"It is very important," the chairman said, "that each producer return his questionnaire by October 15 so that the county committee can inform him of his allotment and put his name on the list of eligible voters before the referendum. Any vote may be challenged if the voter's name is not on the eligible list. Anyone who has not received a questionnaire may obtain one by calling by the AAA office in Roby.

If two-thirds of those voting in the referendum favor quotas, farm acreage allotments and quotas will be in effect for the 1948-1949 and 50 crops.

All peanuts produced in 1948 on farm that is not overplanted will be eligible for a loan or other price support at 80 per cent of parity. On an overplanted farm, only excess peanuts will be eligible for a farm loan or other price support, and at a rate of only 54 per cent of parity. Peanuts marketed in excess of the quota will be subject to a penalty at the rate of 50 per cent of the basic rate in effect.

Telephone Company Eyes Boost in Rates

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, which serves Hamlin, will seek increases in Texas wherever earnings in each of its 248 exchanges justify application to city regulatory bodies. W. L. Prehn, general manager for the state, said this week.

Prehn said the company is studying its earnings in each of the exchanges and plans for requesting increased rates will be determined as results from the studies.

VFW To Furnish Hamlin Memorial Hospital Lobby

VFW Post No. 6014 will furnish the lobby of the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, it was announced Wednesday.

Every member is being urged to notify Rip Blackwell of their blood type and also give him their telephone number. This information is being compiled for the local hospital and blood donors may be called on in case of emergencies.

McCaulley Eagles Stomp St. Joseph Academy 35 to 0

McCaulley Eagles, undefeated six-man football team from last year and winner of all games played so far this season, have stretched their streak of wins to 11 by smothering the St. Joseph Academy team from Abilene with a score of 35 to 0. The Eagles have not been scored upon so far this year, having scored 95 points against their opponents.

In the three games already played touchdowns have been made by the following Eagles: Houghton, 6; Lawlis, 3; Gibson, 2; Fought, 1; J. points made as follows by: Hawkins, Lawlis, 1; Hawkins, 1; and extra 6 (three field goals); Fought, 3; Waldrop, 1; and H. Lawlis, 1.

Substitutes have seen plenty of action in all games also. Players and their positions are: Houghton, back, 155 pounds; Gibson, back, 135 pounds; Hawkins, back, 140 pounds; J. Lawlis, back, 135 pounds; Hicks, back, 130 pounds; H. Lawlis, end, 155 pounds; Fought, end, 148 pounds; Lewis, end, 110 pounds; Carlan, end, 135 pounds; Prather, end, 136 pounds; West, end, 175 pounds; Waldrop, center, 142 pounds; Darden, center, 190 pounds and Cox, center, 175 pounds.

Dr. W. B. Glass, Former Missionary To China, Speaks

Dr. W. B. Glass, retired missionary, was guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock a. m. service at the First Baptist Church Sunday. Dr. Glass was a missionary to China for over 40 years, beginning in 1903. Mrs. Glass began her missionary work in 1901. Both were interned in China by the Japanese for two years during World War II.

He is a brother of Mrs. Etta Stephenson of Hamlin and he and Mrs. Glass were week-end guests in the Stephenson home.

Mrs. Glass addressed members of the TEL and Dorcas Sunday School classes Sunday morning. She gave some interesting accounts of her missionary work in China.

Dr. and Mrs. Glass are now at Seminary Hill in Fort Worth and are busy most of the time making talks in churches all over Texas and adjoining states. He has just completed a series of sermons at Hollis, Oklahoma before coming here.

They visited Dr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and other relatives in Abilene Sunday night. Mrs. Stephenson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele, accompanied them to Abilene.

Now in effect, the mail subscription offer of the Abilene Reporter-News for one year, daily and Sunday, is $795.

For renewals only, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram offers the daily and Sunday papers for one year at $11.95 and daily without Sunday for $10.60. Orders must be for one full year.

You may get the Wichita Daily Times or the Wichita Falls Record for one year, daily and Sunday, for $8.25. Subscriptions may be new or renewals. Both papers will be sent for $15.

Business Firms Report Many Thefts Recently

A series of petty thefts and one major burglary has been reported in the past several days here to authorities. Western Auto Store manager, Claude Lancaster, revealed that about $500 in cash and checks was taken from his safe in the rear of the building Saturday morning.

On Sunday night someone entered the Ideal Steam Laundry and broke open the penny machine, taking the contents. The intruder emptied about 1,000 straight pins into one of the washers and "messed up" the things in general at the back of the building by opening water faucets and scattering papers. Wade Implement Company and Mauldin Service Station were entered the same night and small articles taken. Pennies were taken at the service station.

A 13-year-old youth has been questioned concerning the thefts and charges are expected to be filed soon. It is believed a group of teenagers is responsible for the small crime wave. A meeting of business men, school authorities and other interested persons was set for Thursday. The problem of juvenile delinquency was to be thoroughly discussed.

Cotton Crop Half Gathered In Community

Better than half of the 1947 cotton crop has been ginned, according to ginners in this and surrounding communities. The rain Monday delayed pulling for two or three days but in most places work was resumed by Wednesday. Cotton grades were lowered a little by the rain but otherwise it was unharmed to the crop.

Farmers Cooperative Gin has ginned 952 bales at noon Wednesday. Producers Gin has ginned 700 bales, making the total of 1,652 for the city gins.

Mienda's Cooperative Gin reported a total of 1,100 bales Wednesday morning. A light shower in that community was received Monday but slowed cotton pulling only for that day.

At McCaulley 267 bales had been ginned with the rain preventing field work from Monday afternoon.

Style Cleaners Moving Downtown

John R. Howell, owner of Style Cleaners, located two blocks west of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank, since opening here, will open Monday morning in a new downtown location. Howell announced today. The shop will be located in the north unit of the new Carmichael Building, adjacent to Wade Implement Company.

Howell stated that the plant would be shut down Thursday night in order to move during the week-end. location in order to take in clothing and check out garments already cleaned.

Firm to Higher Prices for Livestock, Grains and Farm Products on Up, Too

Southwest farm markets paid mostly firm to higher prices for live stock, grains and many other products last week, according to a report received by The Herald from the Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

Hogs scored gains of mainly 50 cents to $1. San Antonio and Fort Worth established new all time high prices of $28.25 and $29.50 respectively. Week's top at Oklahoma City was $29.75, Wichita $29.60 and Denver $30.50.

Cattle closed the week generally strong to 50 cents higher, although Houston and San Antonio netted losses on steers and yearlings. Houston paid a top of $22 for medium and good caked grass steers. San Antonio bought low to average medium steers at $20. Fort Worth took good fed steers and yearlings at $23 to $27.50. Oklahoma City paid $27 to $29 for good and choice steers, and Wichita gave $20 to $25 for medium light steers and yearlings. Denver set a new all time high of $33 for choice steers, while medium

Hamlin Rotary and Lions Furnish Hospital Room

Members of the Hamlin Lions Club voted Tuesday to completely furnish a room in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital.

The Rotary Club recently voted to furnish a room in the hospital also.

Hamlin Receives 71 Inch Rain Monday Afternoon

Residents of Hamlin finally received that long-awaited rain Monday afternoon with about .71 of an inch of moisture falling intermittently for a few hours. A Herald reporter learned from Bill Rountree at the City Pump Station.

The precipitation was almost localized in the city and surrounding communities southwest and northwest of here. Stamford only received a very light sprinkle, it was reported. In the Plainview community a very light shower was received.

Judging from a survey among the farmers and ranchers it is believed the rain will be very beneficial to the wheat land and will not lower the cotton crop yield. The majority of the cotton crop has already been gathered and that which is still standing does not appear to be harmed or beaten from the stalk. However, the grade is a little lower at most gins in this community.

This was the first rain, other than small showers, since June 18 for Hamlin.

"Tex" Moore, official cowboy artist of Texas, has just returned from Wichita, Kansas, where he attended the Chisholm Trail Jubilee.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore made the trip by automobile with Mrs. Moore doing all the driving.

Mr. Moore has ridden the much discussed Chisholm Trail many times, he told a Herald reporter who interviewed him. According to him, the trail was originally named for Jesse Chisum and a New Mexico cattleman by the name of John Chisholm got all the fame for the founding of the famed cattle trail from Texas to the rail centers of Kansas.

The local artist didn't know Chisum, but his father did and Tex is sure that the confusion which arose in getting the two names mixed was not intentional by John Chisholm.

Tex's father was the first man to drive a herd of cattle from Texas to Abilene, Kansas, which was at that time the western limit of the rail road. Tex drove his first cattle over the Chisum trail in 1879 to Dodge City and also made two other trips to that western Kansas cattle and rail hub.

Mr. Moore's past is as colorful as any character in a western magazine. He was a Texas Ranger under Captain Bill McDonald and still carries a .44 slug in his leg to prove it. He also was an Indian scout under the command of General George Crook, serving in the second Geronimo campaign.

He first started his career as a painter when Frederick Remington, old-time cowboy artist, praised his work and urged him to continue it. He also was backed by another cowboy artist, Charles Russell of Montana. He is now the last of the only three cowboy artists in existence.

He has had his work displayed all over the country and his paintings can be found all over the world. He conservatively estimates that he has painted at least 3,000 pictures.

Moore is a life member of the Old-Time Texas Cowboy Association and has been honored by the Texas state legislature in naming him the "Official Cowboy Artist of Texas."

Mr. and Mrs. Moore spent the summer in Montana. Tex went to the Jubilee in hopes of finding another old-time cowboy like himself with whom he could recall stories of the old West.

He was crippled many years ago when a government wagon ran over his foot, but that doesn't deter him from his work. He is still very active although in his 80's, and can spin a yarn with the best of them. He still paints and his favorite pastime is a quiet game of solitaire.

Anson Paper Sold To Ed W. Sprowls

Western-Observer, Anson newspaper, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fink to Ed W. Sprowls, who recently disposed of publishing interests at Tulsa and Happy. The Finks bought the paper last December. Sprowls assumed charge on October 1.

Mighty Mice Give Merkel Tiny Badgers 40-0 Walloping

Hamlin's Mighty Mice gave the Little Merkel Badgers a 40-0 lesson in what Pied Pipers of the future will do to them in a game played here last Thursday night. The locals ran over the little Badgers just like their big brothers had run over the Pipers a few evenings previously on the same field.

This Thursday evening the Mice play host to the Stamford Juniors and on Thursday night of next week, October 16, they play the Anson Juniors.

Followers of the Mighty Mice are expecting them to again be champions of their loop.

Fire Damages Irwin Motor Company Sunday

Fire of undetermined origin practically gutted the repair department of Irwin Motor Company and destroyed two second-hand cars on Sunday night about 11:30 o'clock p. m. When firemen arrived on the scene, the blaze was breaking on through the roof at one point, but the fire fighters quickly brought the fire under control.

Jimmy Irwin, owner-manager of the Kaiser-Frazer Company, stated that the loss was not completely covered with insurance.

Workmen have been busy clearing the debris and the mechanical department will be in operation again in a few days, according to Mr. Irwin. Part of the building will have to be rebuilt.

A new Friday Manhattan in the show room at the time of the fire escaped damage.

District Meeting American Legion Set for Abilene

Hamlin Legionnaires were informed this week that George S. Berry, Lubbock, Commander of the American Legion, Department of Texas, will be principal speaker at the annual fall convention of the 17th Legion District to be held Saturday and Sunday, October 11-12 at Abilene.

P. C. Stacy, Stephenville, 17th District Commander, will preside and Paramount Legion Post No. 57 at Abilene will be host for the occasion. J. R. Gleaton, Stamford, of Department Vice Commander, is also on the program.

Registration of delegates will begin Saturday morning and continue throughout the day. Main business session of the convention is scheduled Sunday afternoon.

Heading the business agenda of the convention will be the formulation of plans for the 1947-1948 Legion year with special emphasis on membership. Commander Stacy has announced. District committee appointments will also be made at the convention, he said. One of the main issues expected to be debated on the convention floor is that of "Veterans' Housing," he said.

Each of the 30 Legion Posts in the 17th District of which Hamlin is a member, has indicated that it will be prerepresented at the convention," Stack concluded.

A number of officials an members of the Keifer-Patterson Post will attend the convention from Hamlin. A Herald reporter learned early this week.

Herald Reminds Its Advertisers and Other Necessity of Deadline

The Hamlin Herald management again wishes to remind advertisers and news contributors and readers in general that the Wednesday noon deadline is still in effect. As previously explained this step is necessary due to breakdown of a Linotype (typesetting) machine and also due to the shortage of help, both have hampered The Herald greatly. We hope to have the parts here and repairs made soon. Until then, please bear with us!

District Curtain Raiser Tonight at Throckmorton

Spur High School Bulldogs, led by Wright, Allred, Barclay and company, unleashed a powerful attack at Piper Stadium Friday night, to swat the Pied Pipers 34 to 13. It was the season's third consecutive defeat for the Pipers, but it also marked their first time to score this fall.

A non-conference scrap, the game was featured by the running and power gains of the Bulldogs, who had previously defeated a fairly weak Haskell team and had tied the Post team.

Early in the game the Bulldogs struck and kept the game going their way from then on. Wright skirted left end and raced 42 yards for the first pay dirt in the opening minutes. Wilson took a pass from Simpson in the second quarter that was good for 72 yards and a touchdown. Minutes later Allred hit the left side and ripped off 62 yards that put him across the double stripe.

Long runs were also made by Barclay and Wright in the third and fourth quarters for the final Bulldog tally. Wright made good on four out of six tries for extra points.

First score for Hamlin came in the first quarter following a fumble by Wright on the two-yard line. Jack Owens recovered and then scored from there. Final score for the Pipers came in the last stanza as the climax of an 80-yard drive downfield against Spurs reserves.

The Bulldogs suffered a blow in the third quarter when their left end, Bass, broke his arm while making a tackle.

Meet Greyhounds Tonight Friday night marks the entrance of the Pied Pipers into conference play as they journey to Throckmorton to tangle with the fast-stepping Greyhounds. The Greyhounds nosed out Munday's Moguls 26-24 in a hotly contested fray last Friday night.

Results of other area games were: Stamford 45, Albany 13. Snyder 7, Post 6. Roscoe 21, Winters 6. Woodson 13, Aspermont 7. Anson 46, Haskell 0. Rochester 47, Hobbs 13. Rotan 25, Roby 0. Merkel 47, Lomake 12.

Meats Remain On Menu Here Tuesday Noon

From available information, meat remained on the luncheon menus of all Hamlin major cafes and coffee shops Tuesday, the day requested by President Truman to be observed as "meatless." Majority of the operators plan to carry meat dishes on their menus and let their customers decide if they want to carry out the president's suggestion, a survey made by a Herald reporter revealed.

In most eating places, emphasis will be placed on the vegetable dishes on Tuesdays, thereby encouraging them to refrain from eating meat.

Meat was served the Lions Club and although the subject was widely discussed among the members most of the members at meat. And it was hinted that all regular meat eaters had their usual amount.

One operator stated that not a single customer refused meat that day and expressed doubt that they would ever comply with the request. Several remarked that if the government would reduce our income taxes, they would be willing to cooperate on such a matter.

"Let your conscience be your guide," seems to be the motto here, as in larger towns.

So, the matter stands in Hamlin.

Social Security Man Sets Stamford Date

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

by Jeanette Bryant

"Children should be seen and not hurt" is a very fitting motto displayed in the Mineral Wells school zone. Think it over.

"In the footprints on the sands of time some people leave only the marks of a heel." Better watch our steps. Stop and look backward occasionally to make sure we're not making such a mistake.

Just must tell about our visit to the State Fair. It's a great show and they certainly planned a full day of fine entertainment for the press with a barbecue at noon in the Chuck Wagon and the well-known Chuck Wagon Gang from Odessa serving the delicious food. In the afternoon the newspaper men and their wives were guests at the premier showing of "Annie Get Your Gun" and the "White Horse Revue." The SMU-Missouri football game in the evening climaxed the day's activities.

It was difficult to decide which

mother and child combination was the most popular at the Fair, Mary Martin and her six-year old daughter, Heller, in their excellent character roles in "Annie Get Your Gun" or Elsie, the nationally known cow, and her two-week-old calf. The comparison sounds ridiculous but believe it or not the lines standing to get a gander at the bovine and her son was half a mile long (almost anyway.)

Of course, Elsie isn't just an ordinary cow therefore her son is unique too. Their elaborately furnished boudoir is not the usual type home for a cow and calf. But on the other hand, Mary and Heller are not just ordinary actresses, they and aughter would rank first after are wonderful. Guess the mother seriously considering the matter.

Who said the world isn't getting better? We're convinced it truly is showing signs of improving. First time we ever sat through an entire football game in the Cotton Bowl and didn't see a liquor bottle being drained or even a person who looked a little on the intoxicated side. Could be the cost of living has increased so greatly that people simply cannot afford the stuff and a ticket to the football game too.

Or might be because we were sitting among mostly newspaper personnel and of course, they refrain from such disgusting practice. (??) Never heard a curse word either. How encouraging for those who thought the world was going "to the dogs."

Mary Martin really plays the part of Annie Oakley superbly in the musical, "Annie Get Your Gun." The costumes are the most gorgeous and colorful ones that you can imagine. Irving Berlin's songs, written especially for this show, are very good. The only criticism we have to offer is that the profanity could have been eliminated and Texas would have enjoyed the show much more fully. The majority of people appreciate a good show void of vulgarity or profanity. Or so we believe. We might be wrong.

Betty Brown Lee, who was judged the best baton twirler in America last year and now a star in the Ice Circus, gave a beautiful performance "tween" hills at the football game. We overheard some Missouri fans suggesting that they place her behind the Missouri goal post and nothing could stop those Tigers.

CAMPUS FORMAL

Yards and yards of cotton net are used by designer Mary Muffet to create this very formal dance frock for big evenings on the campus. In pastels and white, the strapless bodice is garlanded in rosebuds and snuggled for figure flattery.

Sounded reasonable, at least after you got a good look at her.

Boyce House had the privilege of eating lunch at our table. You know we columnists have so much in common. In fact all those members of the fourth estate and radio people, guests at the barbecue, had very much in common after eating those large onions. For the remainder of the day, you didn't ask if they were newspaper personnel, you just took a deep breath for identification.

Our little friend is still fighting for life. While with him we learned that Mr. and Mrs. Starr Inzer has been there at the hospital with their little son and both had made friends, among the children and their parents. Many inquired about the Inzers and complimented on being such a fine couple who are interested in all people and especially those who are ill, or the parents who are so concerned about their precious children. Many lasting friendships are developed around hospitals.

Agent Advises Not to Trim Mums Too Close

All Hamlin and Jones County homemakers should leave chrysanthemum buds alone if the plants are the new hardy garden varieties, states Miss Loretta Allen, county home demonstration agent.

The beauty of the new varieties lies in the profusion of blossoms rather than in the size of each individual flower, the Jones County home demonstration agent says.

Custom of trimming back the tops of chrysanthemums to produce sturdy, low-growing plants should be stopped at least 10 or 12 weeks before flowers are expected—although the time varies with the variety.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Time Lapse In Delivery of Remains Of War II Dead

Hamlin and Jones County people were informed this week by Colonel C. C. Strawn, commanding officer of the Fort Worth Quartermaster Depot, that there will be an operational time lapse between arrival of the deceased military personnel at ports of New York and San Francisco and the final delivery of remains to their next-of-kins.

This lapse of time may be as great as three weeks, depending upon distance of residence of next-of-kin from port at which remains arrive and the number of rail transfer points and rail connections to be made between port, distribution center and final destination.

Colonel Strawn stressed to Herald readers that next-of-kin will receive positive information from distribution points nearest residence of next-of-kin as soon as date of arrival at home is known.

Foreign Threats To Cotton Seen With Synthetics

Foreign efficiency and production pose a great threat right now to the American cotton industry, E. D. White, assistant to the secretary of agriculture, informs the Jones County Farm Bureau and bureau members.

White declares that despite today's favorable position of the U. S. cotton industry, "there still exists a destructive threat to cotton."

"Ceaselessly, day by day," White says, "this competition is gnawing away at the very foundation on which cotton rests. Rising efficiency and increased production of foreign cotton, and of domestic and foreign synthetic fibers are the greatest threat."

"The once vast stocks of cotton held by the Commodity Credit Corporation have disappeared, primarily because of the post-war development of export markets," White continues. "Holding of these foreign markets in the face of destructive competition presents a real challenge to every farm bureau and to the ingenuity of America."

The official points out that the Department of Agriculture "recognizes that increased industrialization of the South would greatly decrease the possibility of a substantial social problem arising from the complete mechanization of cotton."

Noted Lecturer Slated to Speak At H-SU Monday

Hamlin area and Jones County people are informed this week of Howard Pierce Davis, world-renowned lecturer and specialist of international affairs, will be presented in a one hour lecture in the Hardin-Simmons Behrens chapel on Monday evening, October 13 at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

Davis is the editor of the World Observer and has spent at least three months of each of the last nine years in Europe. There he studied the many and complex problems and moves for power, interviewing the men who guide the course of this troubled world. The presentation of Davis is the first of four artist courses scheduled to be presented in the chapel during the coming school year. On February 12 the Barter Theatre play is to be presented. Alec Templeton, noted blind pianist, is to give a concert February 19, and on May 11, the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra will be heard. Other artist courses are to be scheduled at a later date.

Good Interest Shown In Cotton Maid Quest

Autumn, with its happy reminder of falling leaves and golden sunsets, swept across Jones County Monday. Although the weather man would not get "out on a limb" Tuesday he holds promise—now that Autumn is here—of cooler nights and greatly moderated days in the weeks ahead. Farmers over the county are hopeful, open, sunny weather of September will continue so early cotton can be harvested and ginned before fall rains start.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

Did you ever hear of "dropping the pigeon?" Back in Memphis, Tennessee, when I was a young reporter, "dropping the pigeon" was frequently reported to the police. How the name was derived I don't know but it was swindle in which the sharpsters and the victims were negroes. The scheme worked in this way.

A cotton picker, with his season's earnings, alighted from a train and as he entered the railroad station, a well-dressed negro preceived from the new arrivals' clothes and his gawking at the sights that he was a greenhorn so he stepped forward and said, "Jedge Brown, when did you get to the city?" and then he said, "Ah begs yoah pardon, suh but you looks so much lak mah friend, Jedge Brown de distinguished law-yah from Grenada dat ah mistook you."

Of course, the rustic was flattered at having been mistaken for so distinguished a personage and then his new friend said, "Ah'm goin' to walk up town, ef you would care to accompany me, ah'd be glad to point out de sights." An invitation which was accepted.

They had walked only a block or two when the city man stooped quickly and picked up a billfold, then jerked his companion into a doorway, saying, "Let's git in heah befo' somebody ses whut we found." In the billfold was a $50 bill. "Huh, no name er address; we can't return it, so it's ouahs," said the finder. "You has brung me luck so we will split it." But he didn't have the change. The visitor however produced $25, so his friend pocketed this and handed him the $50 bill. A few minutes later the finder of the billfold shook hands with him cordially and told him goodbye. When the country negro made a purchase, he learned that the bill was counterfeit. The billfold had of course been dropped by a confederate of the smooth talker.

During the trial for theft, the defendants suddenly changed his plea to guilty. The jury came back in a little while with a verdict of "Not guilty." The judge said, "But the defendant confessed." "Pshaw, jedge," replied the foreman, "we all know Bill and we know what a big liar he is."

POT-SHOTS FROM McCauley

By GEORGE DARDEN

There's a lot of wheeling and dealing going on in and around the old home town with reference to the buying and selling of real estate. E. C. Waldrop has sold a farm to J. I. Parker adjoining the town site on the north and George Darden has purchased an 80-acre farm from Anderson-Clayton Cotton Company adjoining the town site on the southwest. And a lot of other deals in the making. The old home town has unfolded the sidewalks and once again progress is on the march.

Besides ginning and gathering of cotton, the world series has caused quite a bit of excitement and too the McCauley High football team defeated St. Joseph Academy of Abilene by a score of 32 to 0 last Friday. Thus far the local hasn't been scored on and we gotta' notion that we got another district championship team and if you think of this as otherwise there is a lot of boys who will "ante up."

Still need boll pullers in these parts, cotton is good, for instance C. M. Woods gathered 10 bales off of 16 acres the first going over and with no rain.

Meandering around in Hamlin last Saturday night and from the looks of things the suburbs of McCauley was a busy place.

"Senator Pappy" has been barnstorming over West Texas the past week and from his reports the country is still going to the dogs. We thought surely Pappy would clean up the country by this time.

Visited our mom and pop at Gilard, Kent County last Sunday and the fields are white with cotton up there.

The big boys over in Russia are still doing a lot of talk. Maybe they are bluffing but we better be prepared just in case.

Several Fisher County 4-H Club boys are in Dallas this week for the Texas Fair with their show calves.

Its doggone little local news we know this week, in fact haven't had time to get off the gin lot but so long as business is good it doesn't make much difference about aching bones.

Going to sell our five room house in McCauley up the first of January and won't hold you up on the price. Reason for selling going to try our hand at farming.

The McCauley School Board still want to purchase 2,000 feet of two-inch pipe. Sho' do need to complete the water system at the new school building.

In three weeks the cotton farmer will be ready for a rain, maybe so the wheat farmer wants one now.

It looks as if Harley Sadler may throw his hat in the ring for Governor of Texas. Harley would be a hard man to beat. He has plenty of friends.

Folks have begun to wonder about Fisher County politics, pretty soon its going to get "hot" in more ways than one.

If you know any local gossip that should be in this column all you gotta' do is see the scribe or mail it in. See you next week.

County Schools Need Health Plan Says State Man

Every school in Jones County should have a definite school health program. Situations such as, the kind of drinking water, arrangements for the school lunch, the lighting, seating, ventilation and cleanliness of the school room and the personal practices of the teachers and children are the basis of the school health program, said Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer in a special release to The Herald this week.

Every school has tremendous opportunities to promote the health of its pupils and of its community. From early childhood to early manhood and womanhood, most children are enrolled in schools and are under the supervision of school staffs for a substantial part of the day for approximately half the days of the year. The conditions under which they live in school, the help which they are given in solving their health problems, the ideals of individual and community health which they are taught and the information and understanding that they acquire of themselves are factors which operate to develop attitudes and behavior conducive to health, happy and successful living.

Schools alone, however, cannot enable children to attain all the desirable goals of individual and community health. Considering the magnitude and multitude of the diverse and continuing efforts that must be made to satisfy the health needs of children, it is fortunate that many people and groups, in addition to schools, are greatly interested in promoting health. Parents have a prime responsibility.

Physicians, dentists, nurses health officers, social and welfare workers and their official organizations, such as medical, dental and nursing societies, health departments and voluntary health agencies are all rightly concerned with health activities in their communities.

Admiration Coffee Opens Unusual Contest for Public

An unusual contest is brought to the attention of The Herald's readers by Admiration Coffee in their $5,000 dollar "My Favorite Grocer" contest.

In this contest not only does the grand prize winner receive $1,000 in cash, but the grocery store named in the winning entry receives $500 in cash. Winners are judged on the best statements of 50 words or less completing the sentence—"My Favorite Grocer is (name of favorite grocery store) because" . . . telling why this grocery store is the favorite of the contestant.

It was pointed out by contest officials that since this is strictly a regional contest—thats confined to the Southwest—and not offered nationally—contestants have eight times better chances of winning in it than any contest offered throughout the United States.

In addition to the grand cash prize of $1,000 for the contestant, the second and third grand prizes are a Philco Refrigerator and a Crosley Radio-Phonograph Combination, respectively. Before the judging of the grand prize winners, there are six weekly contests with the winners receiving the items named above, plus Westinghouse Electric Roasters, Dormeyer Electric Mixers, Manning-Bowman Electric Percolators, Dominion Electric Toasters and dozens of others.

Not only do these prizes go to the winning contestants, but the "favorite" grocers named in the winning contestants' entries also receives valuable prizes.

The contest started September 29. Weekly contest winners will be selected from entries received before midnight Saturday at the end of each week for the following six weeks.

or one of many other valuable prizes

Now is the time to send in your entry for this grand new contest! You may win one of the valuable weekly prizes and still be eligible for any of the Grand Prizes! Remember, if your entry is judged best you win $1,000, and the grocer you name as your favorite also wins $500. Every winning contestant will win a special prize for the grocer he or she names as "My Favorite Grocer." Among the wonderful weekly prizes are Philco refrigerators, Westinghouse Electric roasters and irons, Dormeyer electric mixers, Manning-Bowman electric percolators, Dominion electric toasters—and many other prizes!

FOLLOW THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. Simply complete this statement in fifty words or less: "My favorite grocery store's name is my favorite grocer because . . ."
2. Write on one side of paper (or get an entry blank from your grocer) and mail to Admiration Contest, Box 285, Houston, Texas. Be sure to include your name and address and name and address of your grocer.
3. You may send as many entries as you wish but each entry must be accompanied by one of these: The Mummy picture (or label) from an Admiration Coffee package or jar—or the strip that unwinds from an Admiration vacuum can.
4. Anyone is eligible to enter except employees of the Duncan Coffee Company, their advertising agency and their families.
5. All entries become the property of the Duncan Coffee Company—none can be returned—and the decision of the judges will be final.
6. The contest begins September 29th and ends midnight, November 16th. Weekly contest winners will be selected from entries received before midnight Saturday of each week. All entries postmarked later than midnight, November 16, will not be considered.
7. All winners will be notified. A list of the winners will be sent to all contestants requesting one and sending a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Your "Favorite Grocer" features CUP Tested ADMIRATION Coffee—that delicious blend with the abundant flavor, aroma and richness. Get your favorite grind—Dripkut, Perk-Kut or Glass-drip.

Easily Declining Prices for Cotton Recorded as Crop Harvest Climaxes

Jones County cotton producers concerned over the report that prices in spot markets declined steadily and lost about three-tenths of a cent a pound during last week, according to the Department of Agriculture in a release to the Herald. Spot markets were active. Mill buying increased. Demand continued strong for most weight textiles with prices firm. Domestic mill consumption during August was 711,000 bales, or 1.1 percent less than the same date last year. Those ginnings were slightly higher in grade but the staple length was shorter than the same date last year.

Stocks of cotton in mills and in public storage are at very low levels. Picking and ginning made good progress in most areas. Labor for picking is reported to be scarce in many sections. Prices for middling fifteen-sixteenths in the 10 spot markets average 31.00 cents per pound on Thursday, September 25, as compared with 31.89 cents a week earlier and 37.57 a year ago. Prices declined steadily during most of the week. The basis of spread between December futures and spot prices narrowed and was about "even" at the end of the week as compared with 15 points a week ago. Future prices tended to weaken under hedge pressure.

Reported sales in the ten spot markets totaled 226,000 bales for the week as compared with 198,400 last week and 172,500 a year ago. Some cotton is being withheld from the market by farmers. Mill buying increased a little principally for prompt delivery with the demand mostly for the medium to higher grades and staple lengths fifteen-sixteenths inch through one and one-sixteenth inch. Merchants and mills are not stocking cotton to any extent. Reports indicate that the first shipment consisting of 15,000 bales of cotton exported to Germany under the plan for exports through regular trade channels has left this country and another 10,000 bales is expected to be shipped by the end of September. Domestic mill consumption totaled 710,600 during August, according to the Bureau of the Census. This compares with 677,500 during July this year and with 355,500 during August last year. The average daily rate of consumption during August was 33,800 bales. This is the smallest daily rate for any August since 1940 with the exception of August 1945. The daily rate for August 1947 was about 10 percent higher than for July but 13 percent smaller than for August last year. The 10-year (1937-46) average increase in daily consumption in August over July was three per cent.

Stocks of cotton in mills at the end of August were reported at 1,154,300 bales. This is the smallest quantity in mills as of the end of August since 1940. At the August rate of consumption mill stocks were equal to only about one and one-half months supply. This short supply is probably reflected by trade reports of premiums being offered for prompt delivery. Stocks in public storage at the end of August were also at very low levels. According to the Bureau of Census these stocks totaled only 833,100.

Rheumatic Heart Disease Takes Toll Among Children

Jones County parents are advised by State Health Officer Dr. George W. Cox that rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged 10 to 14, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its epidemiology is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough has yet been developed for its prevention or control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals, and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented.

Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or over-crowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever. Dr. Cox points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain usually is felt in one of these centers and spreads to the others. Oftentimes a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily to develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

C. A. (Runt) MARR, above and Fred Hawn, both veteran St. Louis Cardinal scouts will conduct a baseball tryout camp in Seymour Friday and Saturday, October 10-11. And at Stephenville on October 13-14.

Combination Dishes Stretch Food Energy

Combination main dishes for Hamlin and Jones County homes offer a two-way economy, especially important for low cost meals when food costs are up, reports Miss Loretta Allen, county home demonstration agent. Such combinations as macaroni and cheese, spaghetti and meat sauce, rice and meat stew, or creamed eggs on toast are familiar examples.

The economy in such dishes is that the inexpensive cereal foods "stretch" the meat, cheese or eggs and make them go farther in serving the family. Miss Allen points out that the more important economy, however, is the other way around—the meat, eggs, milk or cheese stretch or build up the nutritive value of cereal foods.

The protein in grains or cereals is not complete. To be fully useful for growth and body repair grain protein can be reinforced with animal protein. If cereal foods such as bread, flour and rice are to be used to the best advantage in the diet, thrifty Jones County housewives will combine them with at least a little milk, cheese, meat or eggs. In the union there is added strength and added flavor.

Dried skim milk at current prices is the cheapest food and one of the best for building up cereal protein.

Mrs. W. H. Gilbert is visiting in Dallas this week-end where she will meet Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Holder of Westfield, New Jersey. Mrs. Gilbert was the former Edwina Gilbert. They will return to Hamlin with her mother on Saturday to spend their vacation. They were due to arrive in Dallas by plane on Friday.

MEN NOT WORRIED MUCH BY STYLE CHANGES IN FASHION

While women's skirts go up and down like an elevator, you may be glad to know, daddy, that the present drape trend in men's wear in Jones County will stick for a while. No need to make over or replace your wardrobe on that account.

Local merchants find the men of Hamlin and the county pretty well secure.

For instance, in a preview of what will be chic for spring, the low roll one-button double-breasted suit will be just ducky for Jones and Fisher Counties. This is a typical drape shape item.

But as for bi-swing sport coats and bi-swing back suits—nuts! No merchant in this sector figures many men will tog out in the sports numbers next spring. No local merchant expects a rush for bi-swing suits.

A gabardine top coat, for example, will help bill you as a well dressed man next spring. There is very little enthusiasm over covert top coats.

Now about suit materials. A majority of the style-conscious vendors think you will be pleased with cheviots and shetlands, in herringbone patterns.

Jones County's 7,984 men folks, as many have already ascertained, find there still isn't enough suits, shirts, underwear and shoes to satisfy everybody. But there will be plenty of overcoats available in the local stores—even if you can't get all the things to go under them.

Local merchants aren't quite sure, either, whether you will buy a new spring suit outfit after looking at the price tags. Right here is where the male will need a nice little pep "huddle" in the form of the good sales talk.

Millenium Finally Came.

It happened during the rush for gasoline ration coupons and the scene was an American high school. The white-haired teacher at the table looked up and grinned at the man standing before her, application in hand.

"Well," she said, "after all these years, I'm finally able to give you an 'A'!"

Feed County Soil For Fatter Crops, Agent Is Urging

"Feed the land and fatten the crops."

That's the slogan which H. C. Stanley Jr., county agent, would like to see in operation on every farm in County County.

Stanley brings the slogan to attention now because it's time to "feed the land" with winter legumes, which help furnish soil fertility that fattens the crops.

Winter legumes can be planted, says Stanley, as soon as there is enough moisture in the soil to work it properly.

Legume seed that has been inoculated has produced the best crop of green manure. Stanley says that proper seed inoculation is a necessary phase of legume growing. If the producer wants to get the most benefit from his winter cover crop, fertilization is just as necessary, says the county agent, in areas where soils and rainfall will make good use of the fertilizer.

On the better types of Jones County soils Stanley recommends 200 to 400 pounds of 20 per cent super-phosphate per acre, or its equivalent, while on light, sandy soils and old fields, it will take 300 to 400 pounds of 0-14-7 commercial fertilizer per acre to get the job done.

Stanley labels winter legume growing one of the biggest steps in the current 7-Step Cotton Program which thousands of Texas farmers are carrying on in the state. The 7-Step Program, a balanced cotton farming plan, includes "soil improvement," and inoculated, fertilized legumes, turned under preceding cash crops, is a money-making soil improvement step.

The agent is urging Jones County farmers to obtain their legume seed, fertilizer and inoculant and be ready for legume planting when soil moisture permits.

FALL FASHIONS of 1947 have a look of roundness as shown in the above suit. Jones County women note collars, hiplines and pockets are rounded in new fall offerings, which are on display at local stores.

County Agent Asks Farmers to Clean Up Rubbish on Premises

County Agent H. C. Stanley Jr. warned Jones County farmers to dispose of rubbish accumulations promptly. "Otherwise," the agent said, "the waste material may dry out and become ideal tinder for a discarded match or stray spark."

Many farmers, burdened with farm chores, are apt to let piles of rubbish, leaves and grass lie around for weeks, the county agent stated.

"Disposal of this waste should come under the heading of farm 'housecleaning'. Not only are the piles a definite fire hazard, but they are unsightly and often breed disease."

Piles of moist manure and other rubbish have been known to ignite by spontaneous combustion, he pointed out. "Very often farmers 'touch off' the piles by uncovering the damp underlayers. On being exposed to the air, the piles catch on fire."

"Because of the fire hazard that is always present around such piles, farmers should keep approved fire extinguishers handy," Fowler added. "Extinguishers are also a must in the kitchen and barns for once a fire gets out of hand a farmer's life work can be wiped out in a few minutes."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells and daughter, Kathryn Jean, of Lordsburg, New Mexico left Tuesday after spending 10 days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wells.

Mrs. B. W. Neidecken was in Wichita Falls Saturday and her son, Ben Neidecken and Callens George accompanied her back to Hamlin to spend the week-end. They are both in college.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele were in Abilene Monday and Tuesday. He went for a medical checkup. Mrs. Etta Stephenson spent Monday in Abilene shopping and visiting her son, Dr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson.

Mrs. Starr Inzer and little son, Jimmy, have returned from DeLeon, where they spent a few days with her family. Jimmy underwent medical treatments at Baylor and Bradford hospitals in Dallas last week.

Mrs. J. I. Steed is in Dallas for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Ethel Wellbaum and Mrs. Clonell Johnson, and brother, Elbert Harris.

Slight Price Drop For Commodities Shown by Survey

For the second consecutive week, the Associated Press weighed whole-sale price index of 35 commodities dropped, declining to 190.13 Friday, compared with 192.1 the week before and 144.05 a year ago, in a report to The Herald. The average 1926 price equals 100.

It was the largest weekly drop since May.

The grains and cotton component took the biggest tumble, hitting 220.7 against 228.41 the week before. The food component was next, standing at 159.21, down from 161.04 a week ago.

Other components losing ground were industrials and livestock. The non-ferrous metal component was unchanged.

Banded to boost, bolster... your bottom. The "Bands," sweep upwards, merging into shoulder straps. Small, medium, and large cup sizes for made-to-order perfection. Soft, yet shape holding batiste.

Bryant-Link

Sole gainer of the week was the textile component, advancing to the year's high of 223.89, compared with 222.07 a week ago and 149.86 a year ago.

Individual commodities declining were corn, wheat, oats, cotton, eggs, coffee, butter, hogs, lambs and linseed oil.

Gaining were rubber, turpentine, cocoa, flour, lard, cattle, rye, wool and cotton cloth.

Better Stakes Elsewhere.

Kind Friend—"I'll give you a penny for a kiss, Betty."

Little Sis—"No, thank you! I can earn more takin' cod liver oil."

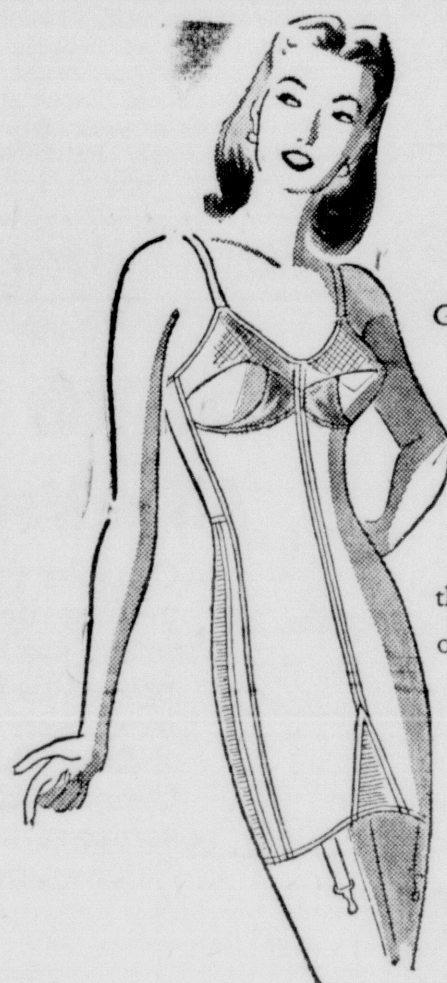

Expecting Too Much of Her. "Why are you so blue this morning?" the lady asked her cleaning woman.

"Oh, I've got me troubles, mum," she replied, and began telling about her afflictions.

"Well, cheer up," said the lady. "There's no use worrying."

"How can you say that, mum?" asked the cleaning woman. "It looks to me that when the Lord sends me tribulations, He expects me to tribulate."

Tourist—"What's in here?" Guide (leading the way into a morgue)—"Remains to be seen, sir."

THE BONE CROP OF THE EARLY 80's

Ben Middleton chuckled as he pocketed the $3 dollars for his load of bones. He had dumped them at the large stockpile on North First an djust east of Pine Street in Abilene, but paused to watch the loading of another freight car before joining his friends. They were his neighbors, all living in the Guion community and these two had each when they told him of the $1.50 re-brought in a load of wood.

"Well boys," Middleton drawled as he walked toward the stockpile. "This is one time that hard work didn't pay off. Here you sweat for hours chopping and loading your wood, while all I do is pick up a pile of nice smooth bones. And then my fare brings twice as much as yours. I'll stick to bones—as long as they last."

This harvesting of the "bone crop" flourished throughout West Texas in those early 80's and many a newcomer owed them to his very livelihood. Several years were required before a farmer could make a crop. Not only must a virgin "hardpan" be broken but all manner of insects and ground pests must also be combated, for the country was prevalent with wild life. And since the West was undeveloped, even largely uninhabited, there were no established trades nor industries in which those covered wagon settlers could work.

Thus these bones, the residue of the great buffalo kill of the 70's, came in quite handy. Sold to eastern manufacturers, they were used in the making of fertilizer and of a bleaching material needed in the refining of sugar.

"It was a most picturesque spectacle," says W. A. McCormick, another early Taylor Countian, in describing those weird stockpiles. "Long queues of wagons poured to the concentration grounds and the piles of bleached, brittle bones reached as high as the houses." And the same scene was being enacted all the way through West Texas.

The bones sold by their weight. They first brought $8 a ton delivered at the pile, but as they became scarce the price soon rose to $21 and $22 a ton.

An interesting incident is told in this connection. "Old Man" Bryant, a former buffalo hunter who lived in Kent County at the mouth of Dry Duck Creek, hauled his gathered buffalo bones into Colorado City. He always spent the night enroute on Lone Wolf Creek. Here he would back his loaded wagon into the rocky bottomed creek night. His load is said to have always brought a fourth again as much as that of his neighbors.

"This bone crop continued large for sometime," said C. E. Gilbert, founder of the Abilene Reporter. "In July, 1881, there were 33 cars of 495 tons shipped out of Abilene; in August there were 37 cars of 555 tons, and in September, 39 cars of 585 tons. In fact," he concluded, "it was so large that it was predicted that when the bones were all gone, trade would be non-existent, until Wednesday morning."

News Briefs From—Fisher County

Fisher County farmers will soon be notified of their 1948 peanut allotment before voting on marketing quotas, the county ACA chairman, Ernest Webb, has announced. Mrs. J. T. Stephenson is new president of the Rotan Home Demonstration Club. Plans are set for the Fisher County Fair to be held at Roby on October 30 through November 1. Open house and dedication service for the new Roby Methodist parsonage will be held Sunday, October 12. A strong flow of water in five feet of strata was hit in the Roby water test at 225 feet. Drilling deeper the stream was stopped at 257 feet and water came nearly to the top of the hole. Water was slightly "gyppy" and the drillers are going deeper.

108 Persons Attend P-TA Meet Thursday

Hamlin Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association met for its first regular scheduled meeting on Thursday, October 2.

Eighth grade rooms gave a very good program under the direction of their teachers, Joe King and G. T. Black.

Business of the association included reports from committees work during the summer, distribution of year books by the program chairman, Mrs. Eddie Jay, and a discussion of the summer work.

J. C. Scott, minister of the Church of Christ, was the speaker for this occasion. He brought a discussion on the subject, "Bettering Human Relations." In this discussion Mr. Scott brought out the ideal of bettering our relations in the international, national, state and local levels. He stated that we as parents and teachers may be a big factor in teaching our children to think in terms of equality of all in a democracy. We can teach both by precept and example. The teacher who has a "pet" is despised of the other students and the parent who makes her child dislike all other children has ruined a child and has brought forth fruit that sometimes leads to un-Americanism. Our co-operation and help for our children through our schools can be a big factor in continuing a sound Democracy.

Next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association is November.

Pleasant Grove Hosts to County Baptists Tuesday

Baptists from Jones County Association will meet with Pleasant Grove Church next Tuesday, October 14 for the regular workers conference. Recently three rural churches, Friendship, Oak Grove and Mount Pleasant, granted letters to all their members, donated all their property to the church-to-be, the Pleasant Grove Church, and adjourned sine die. In this manner the new church was formed. It is located five miles south of Anson on the Abilene highway.

Johnnie Agnew will be in charge of the song services at the conference, which begins at 10:00 o'clock a. m. Rev. Wayland Boyd will speak on "A Good Steward of Jesus Christ," followed by "God's Plan for Financing His Kingdom" by Rev. L. F. Moreland.

"What It Costs Not to Tithe" will be Rev. Miles B. Hays subject at 11:20 o'clock a. m., just preceding the noon lunch.

Several local representatives plan to attend this meeting.

H-SU Cowboys Opens Border Race Saturday

Hamlin football fans and H-SU, Abilene exes, were informed this week that an undefeated Arizona University football team will invade Abilene Saturday night to play the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys as the two teams square off the opening of the Border Conference championship race. Arizona smothered Montana 40 to 7 last Saturday while 24 hours earlier the Cowboys were stubbing their toes in San Jose, California, 12-19.

Defeated by San Jose State Friday night the contest brought to an end the longest undefeated streak of any college team in the Southwest—a total of 22 games. Coach Warren B. Woodson has indicated the Cowboys will be put through stiff workouts all this week in preparation for the first conference game of the season.
